APPLAUDING THE PAST. DIRECTING THE FUTURE.

We have a SEAT for you!

We are proud of the quality of our productions and we hope you are too. And, we are proud of the renovation of the theatre that was completed in 2004.

Over 100 patrons have stepped forward to Adopt-A-Seat to help us with the cost of capital improvements so that we can continue to showcase our productions in a pleasant, comfortable environment.

Please consider joining this group and Adopt-A-Seat in your name or the name of someone you wish to honor. If you commit to donating $1,000 to our Adopt-A-Seat campaign, we will place your name on a seat on the seating chart plaque in the theatre lobby. If you wish, your donation may be paid over a three year period, but your name will be forever inscribed on the plaque.

Most importantly, we hope you will continue to attend our productions and tell your friends about The Little Theatre On The Square!

Best Wishes for an exciting Spring season!

2006 The Little Theatre Mainstage Summer Season

THOROUGHLY MODERN MILLIE — June 7–18

Hold your breath because here comes thoroughly modern Millie in a magical mythical musical set in the Roaring 20's when bobbing your hair and rolling your stockings was considered daring. Millie even colors her lips!

DO BLACK PATENT LEATHER SHOES REALLY REFLECT UP? — June 21–July 2

Focusing on eight children during their Catholic elementary and high school education in the 1950's, this show captures the funniest aspects of youthful growing pains and trying moments of adolescence. Every number tickles the funny bone of anyone who ever went to school, public or private.

GODSPELL — July 5–16

Drawing from various theatrical traditions, Godspell is a ground breaking and unique reflection on the life of Jesus, with a message of kindness, tolerance and love. The score includes Day by Day, Prepare Ye (The Way Of the Lord) and All Good Gifts.

ANYTHING GOES — July 19–30

Anything Goes is an amusing story wrapped around Cole Porter's magical scores including such songs as "It's De-Lovely", "I Get a Kick Out of You", "Blow", "You're the Top", and of course, "Anything Goes".

THE FULL MONTY — August 2–13

Seeing how much their wives enjoy watching male strippers during their "girls night out", unemployed steel workers come up with a bold way to make some quick cash. In the process, they find renewed self-esteem, the importance of friendship and the ability to have fun.

The Princess and the Pea
June 9, 10, 13, 15–17, 2006

The Princess and the Pea, Rick Boyton and Marc Robin's original musical adaptation of the Hans Christian Anderson fairy tale, is sure to delight any child. There is the hilarious Queen Evermean, who's determined to find a bride for her son, and Ruth, the commoner who captures his heart. Add a bed with many, many mattresses, a pea, and a cast of interesting characters to make a great hour of family entertainment.

Winnie the Pooh
July 7, 8, 11, 13–15, 2006

Winnie-the-Pooh is Christopher Robin's fat little bear of Very Little Brain, who would like to drift peacefully through life, humming tunes and stopping frequently to eat "a little something." However, he finds himself involved in all sorts of frantic adventures, assisted by such friends as the dismal Eeyore, Piglet and Rabbit, with his countless relations. Pooh's intentions are always the best, but his passion for honey and condensed milk keeps getting him into trouble. When Piglet gets roped into Kanga's household and Kanga starts bathing him (with soap!) and forcing down spoonfuls of Strengthening Medicine, Pooh wants to fly to the rescue, but he's had so many snacks he gets stuck in the door.

The Lion, The Witch, and The Wardrobe
August 4, 5, 8, 10–12, 2006

This new dramatization of C.S. Lewis' classic, set in the land of Narnia, faithfully recreates the magic and mystery of Aslan, the great lion, his struggle with the White Witch, and the adventures of four children who inadvertently wander from an old wardrobe into the exciting never-to-be-forgotten Narnia.
